Superintendent's Comments/Recommendations: Superintendent Christopher Cowart said the Williston schools are having a hay bale competition this week. CMHS is having a Corn Hole Tournament. He said joining FFA as a student was the greatest decision he ever made. He learned a lot. He said FBLA, HOSA, and Hospitality very important. Mr. Cowart said Scooter Haven in Yankeetown donated 10 FFA jackets to YTS. He said last Monday, Mr. Etheridge cooked 75 steaks for Williston for their "Raising the Stakes" event. He said it was a wonderful event. He said the Beast Feast raised $30,000, which is double the amount from the past events. He said he will be out Thursday and Friday due to a death in the family. He thanked John Lott and his District staff for holding office in his absence.

Board Comments: Cameron Asbell said BMHS will have their FFA Food Fest on Friday and the menu consists of mullet, pork, swamp cabbage, cakes, pies, etc. He said he is proud of WMHS with their national FFA accomplishments. He said FFA and all student groups have to work daily to be successful. He said success contributes to very dedicated teachers, advisors and hard work by students.

Tammy Boyle said everything is going great at CKS with baseball, track and field and FFA. She said students in Mrs. Weatherington's class are working hard to prepare for FFA competition and SRF. She said it is great to see all the experience the students are getting.

Paige Brookins congratulated the FFA students and their accomplishments. She said it is wonderful to have a past hometown student, James Corbin, as the new CMHS coach.

Brad Etheridge said FFA is a great organization that drives students to succeed and will help develop their futures. He said we have amazing teachers, staff and district staff to ensure all the programs are successful. He said competition makes everyone better. Mr. Etheridge said he appreciates everyone's work in Levy County.

Ashley Clemenzi said YTS now has Track and Field, which is very exciting. She congratulated the FFA students and said FFA is a great organization.

Adjournment: There being no further business to come before the Board, the meeting was adjourned for a school visit to Cedar Key School.
