3.101 – Religious Expression in Public Schools

POLICY:

It is the policy of the Levy County School District that the district will not discriminate against a student, parent, or school personnel on the basis of a religious viewpoint or religious expression.

A student's homework and classroom assignments shall be evaluated, regardless of their religious content, based on expected academic standards relating to the course curriculum and requirements.
- (c) A student may not be penalized or rewarded based on the religious content of his or her work if the coursework, artwork, or other written or oral assignments require a student's viewpoint to be expressed.

(2) Religious Clothing, Jewelry, and Accessories

- (a) A student may wear clothing, accessories, and jewelry that display a religious message or symbol in the same manner and to the same extent that secular types of clothing, accessories, and jewelry that display messages or symbols are permitted to be worn.

(3) Students Engaging in Religious Activities and Expression at School

- (a) A student may pray or engage in religious activities or religious expression before, during, and after the school day in the same manner and to the same extent that a student may engage in secular activities or expression.

- (4) Employees Engaging in Religious Activities and Expression at School
 - (a) Levy County School District may not prevent school personnel from participating in religious activities on school grounds that are initiated by students at reasonable times before or after the school day if such activities are voluntary and do not conflict with the responsibilities or assignments of such personnel.
 - (b) Levy County School District must comply with the federal requirements in Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which prohibits an employer from discriminating against an employee on the basis of religion.
- (5) Equal Access to School Facilities
 - (a) Levy County School District shall give religious groups access to the same school facilities for assembling as given to secular groups without discrimination based on the religious content of the group's expression.
