

CHAPTER 5.00 - STUDENTS

5.29 - Exemption From Physical Education Program

POLICY

A pupil, who by reason of illness or disability, is unable to participate in the more vigorous forms of activity of physical education shall be assigned to modified activity upon the recommendation of the attending physician. Work done under a modified program shall be with full credit. A note from the parent or guardian shall excuse a child temporarily from physical education after an absence due to a brief illness. The principal shall determine the length of a temporary excuse without a statement from a physician.
